

Important Information to Share with Parents:

There are new safety procedures starting today for McKinney ISD. Please see the sign below and be patient with the ladies in the front office; they're just the messengers enforcing the new district policy. All campus visitors will be required to show photo ID to the camera outside the front door before entering the building.

